"Ripe peach, melon and baked apple flavors have a nice touch of nutmeg and spice in this full-bodied white."

Wine Spectator

EDITOR'S CHOICE:
"Offers a nice array of pineapples, peaches, apricots and green apples, accented by the smoky vanilla of oak and grounded in minerals."

2009 CHARDONNAY
"...features a delicate nose and velvety mouth-feel. On the palate, there are flavors of baked banana and vanilla...balanced by stonefruit and a crisp mineral finish."

GOLFChicago Magazine

"...Chardonnay is preferable so the firmer acid can cut down on the richness of the shellfish. We recommend the 2009 Matchbook Chardonnay from California."

COEUR D'ALENE PRESS

WINE OF THE WEEK:
"Complex yet subtle, it's a slow mix of soulful vanilla, apricot and crisp acidity..."

Houston Press

"...full flavors and lush, with bright fruit, creamy texture and judicious oak."

"This is palate-filling Chardonnay, with nice oak spice, a punch of green apple-pear-melon fruit, good acidity and a finish that smacks of minerality and wood."
