

2007 & 2008 Tempranillo raves & reviews

"Matchbook Tempranillo, 2008 California. We like: Rich, vanilla-blackberry overtones."
-Cathy Lo, Editor

Good Housekeeping

"Matchbook 2008 Dunnigan Hills Tempranillo- Spicy, shiny, with bracing acidity and a long finish, with its layers of flavors."

in the aromas of raspberry, vanilla, and a hint of dried blackberries... a very food-friendly wine.

GOLF Chicago Magazine

NOB HILL GAZETTE
NOB HILL... AN ATTITUDE, NOT AN ADDRESS

"...when you want to find an exciting new wine, opt for something you don't know, off the wall, foreign territory... Matchbook Tempranillo should qualify... with a smattering of Grenache Petite Sirah- truly its own thing."

BEST OF CLASS

2008 Matchbook Tempranillo

2011 California State Fair

The Detroit News

"This wine offers some acidity and spiciness, mixed with layers of dark cherries, and berry basket. I would gladly serve this..."
-Rich Breshears

4 EXCEPTIONAL
"...a lush and fruit driven wine ... There is much to love here as this tasty and expressive red is also sold at a very sensible and attractive price."

BEVX.COM
A Beverage & Lifestyle Magazine

EAST OREGONIAN online

"Matchbook Tempranillo 2008 ($15) is an earthy wine from the grape that Rioja made famous, with a hint of blueberry. It's from an area of California that most people have never heard of, the Dunnigan Hills..."

epicurious.com
for people who love to eat

"Pick of the Week. Matchbook 2008 Tempranillo: A ripe style, warm and expressive, with sweet fruit, caramel and broad, light tannins."

The Seattle Times

2008 Matchbook Tempranillo: "Obviously, Dunnigan Hills should be on the map for Tempranillo... The wines are spectacular."
-Guy Bower

THE GOOD LIFE

"Matchbook Tempranillo 2007... smokiness, tart cherry notes, and spiciness... the Tempranillo grape is assisted by Graciano and Petite Sirah."

"Matchbook Tempranillo 2007, with earthy cherry and vanilla flavors... this California-Spanish wine "match" will enhance the spicy flavors of the pork dumplings."

YAHOO! Shine

chef online magazine for foodservice professionals

"Matchbook's contribution to a small, but heated clan of Spanish grape fans in Northern California is sensational."
-Chris Kassel

"Matchbook 2007 Tempranillo... versatile Spanish varietal that ANY recipient will certainly enjoy."
-Abby Hoeffner

Detroit Wine Examiner

LIVING magazine

2011 Awards

- California State Fair
- San Francisco Chronicle
- Int'l Wine Comp
- Dallas Morning News

2010 Awards

- San Francisco Int'l Wine Comp
- Los Angeles Int'l Wine Comp
- San Francisco Chronicle
- Int'l Wine Comp
- Dallas Morning News
- Orange County Fair Commercial
- Wine Label Competition